The compiling and publishing of a yearbook is a year-long task. This year's staff has spent many arduous hours in turning out this yearbook, the product of their endeavors. We feel that the '54 ORACLE is the best in T.C.S. history by maintaining previous standards of beauty in cover design, layout artistry, and abandoning formal photographs in favor of in-action pictures which we feel both personalizes the book and captures the events and personalities as the students remember them. If we have succeeded in accomplishing this effect, our added efforts have been more than rewarded.

Our thanks are extended to all those who helped make this publication possible and to the cooperation of the entire student body during the picture taking and interviewing sessions.

We, the staff, proudly present the 1954 ORACLE.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Dear Graduate,

Commencement time . . . caps and gowns . . . goodbyes . . . glad it's over . . . gifts to open . . . summer job . . . college . . .

In the midst of it all, would you pause with me for a moment to consider a day long, long ago when a great teacher took five small biscuits and two fishes and gave one of the great demonstration lessons of all time? By the time He had finished passing out fragments of food, five thousand people had eaten their fill, and His assistants gathered up twelve baskets of left-overs.

Greater even than the miracle which Christ performed that day is the lesson it leaves for us. You have been given a few crumbs of knowledge and a few fishes . . . tools you can use to gain more knowledge. What will you do with them? You can perform the miracle of serving thousands with your small portion of talent if you will. I urge you to make the most of this challenge . . . your parents, your teachers and your principal wish you well.

Cordially yours,

John D. Crosley

Last Will and Testament

We of the Senior Class of Tully Central School, County of Onondaga, State of New York, being of sound mind and body, hereby publish our last will and testament. First, our appreciation to Mr. Crosley and the Faculty for their unfaltering guidance during the past school years, and to Mr. McKeon, Mr. Pearse, and Mr. Ransom, for their help and guidance in making our Senior year a success.

To the Freshmen we leave our ability to have fun but to act serious on the proper occasion. To the Sophomores we leave our outstanding success. Keep up the good work and your class will graduate with honors. We leave to the entire Junior Class our ability to cooperate and work together. The following bequests, we hope you Juniors will accept as a token of our generosity and thoughtfulness: Joan Baker leaves her quiet and easygoing ways to Peggy Rogers. We hope you'll make use of them Peggy. Alice Randall leaves her mathematical ability to Dave Fox and Leona Clark. Jeanette Spencer leaves Pat Dockstater her natural blond hair. June Zufelt leaves Bev Stewart her French horn and her seat in band which is located in front of Gary Venton. Avonel Hatcher leaves her brilliance to Maggie Kinney so she can keep up with Garrett Hiller. Janice Penoyer wills to Anne Fitz her telephone. Now Mert won't have to bother Maggie with his phone calls. Marion James leaves her art ability to Jim Gambell and Bob Barnes. Now you'll be able to paint the towns red. Dill VanDenburg leaves his height and position on the basketball team to Dick Garrett. You should really go places now. Dick McKnight leaves his ability to get along with Anne Finkler to John Springston. Eileen Aungier leaves Clara Downing a new little black book. You'll be busy now Clara. To Harold Potter and Art Dunn, Larry Chase leaves his wrestling ability. A few pounds and some muscles and you boys will be champs. It seems Dot Herold is always dialing the phone; consequently, Phyllis Brenchley leaves Dot her ability to receive calls instead of make them. Gaile Wood leaves her pep, vim and vigor in cheerleading to Paula Munson. It took long hours of training and grooming to develop such beautiful hair, therefore Ronald Russell feels it is his duty to will his hair to Mert Carlton so that he may become a second Liberace! Carolyn Volles wills Jack VanBuskirk to Hattie Cook. Delores Holl leaves her collection of "Secret Loves" to Leora Kinney. Dave Spaulding agrees to teach Shirley Kinney how to milk so she will know how to help Jim do chores. Marty Vossler leaves his ability to keep quiet and stay out of trouble to Dick Mickelson and Phil Bolt. John Padget wills his executive ability to that "Crazy Mixed Up Kid" Anne Finkler. Dick Barnes leaves his arguing ability to Joyce Cook. You've got the voice, now you've got the ability. Ed Hillenbrand leaves his ability to bum rides to Connie Drake. Now you won't have to ask for the family car, Connie. Walt Davis wills his "little old ford" to Nancy Patterson and Barb Trach so you girls can get around. Ray Greene leaves his "little black wagon"' to Garrett Hiller. This will burn up the miles between Apulia and Otisco if you take plenty of extra gas. Roy Fields leaves his southern drawl to Phil Bolt. This will go over big with the girls, Phil. Jack Rothery leaves his yellow convertible to Harry June. Linda goes with it, Harry. Gary Venton leaves his faking ability. Add this to yours and you'll be a pro, Stan. Loretta White leaves her Irish temper to Elsie Chawgo and Mary Lou Murphy. Donna Rycraft is left the ability to CHASE around by Janet McQueen.

We hereby affix our names on this day of February 26, 1954 at Tully Central School, Town of Tully, County of Onondaga.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Occupying the Old Folks Home, located near Tully Center, in the year 2000 A.D., we see four old gents sitting on the porch enjoying the sunshine! They are none other than: Mr. Ransom, Mr. Pearse, Mr. McKeon, and Mr. Crosley. Recalling their teaching days, they remember the outstanding Class of '54 and are reminiscing about the recent progress of that group. For instance, Mr. Ransom reports that:

Jack VanBuskirk, using his hidden talent is now playing first base for the New York Yankees. Jacky may not hit the ball so hard, but he makes a big hit with his wife . . . Carolyn. Hugh Darling, with his arguing vocal cords, has been named Ambassador to Russia. After he received the title of "Champion Arguer," he is certain to give Malenkov a good argument.

Avonel Hatcher, accomplishing her goal, has gone to Africa, not to be a laboratory technician, but to marry a Ubangi. He may not be handsome, but he's all man. Joan Baker is now starring in "The Silent Girlies," now playing on Broadway. Joan has the natural talent for this part.

At this point, Mr. McKeon interrupts and reminds them of his favorite trumpet player: Walt Davis, who is now in the bakery business, where his biggest product is "Brownies." June Zufelt now runs a department store. June specializes in "Seeley" mattresses, and "Jim" products.

Dick Barnes and Loretta White are now married, living on Dutch Hill. Their main interest is small "Barnes." Phyllis Brenchley is now the editor-in-chief of the well known "Granger News Letter." Her favorite column is "Parking and Sparking."

Larry Chase, the new wrestling champion of the world, has one person left to defeat. The one, the only . . . Alice Randall. Paul VanDenburg has gone to West Point. He has obtained the very high position as . . . flagpole.

Eileen Aungier, her dream has finally come true. She is now raising little "Skippers." Ed Hillenbrand is now playing baseball for a California team. He's trying to see if he can make as good a catch as Joe DiMaggio.

As Mr. McKeon pauses for a breath, Mr. Pearse can't let his chances slip by! He brings to their attention the progress of: Martin Vossler, who now owns a hell drivers show, "Marty's Mad Men." Although Marty is the maddest of the men! Jeannette Spencer has become the world's number ONE figure skater! The only trouble . . . no figure. Dolores Holl has now purchased a farm. Her chief product is chlorophyll! Um Boy . . . What a change!

Janice Penoyer has now entered her second childhood, the only difference is, that she's interested in dolls . . . boy dolls. Jack Rothery owns a factory which specializes in Yellow Ford Convertibles exclusively! This is the only way our lover boy can hold his girls!

Janet McQueen and Roy Fields finally tied the knot! Janet tried to keep her love for Roy secret, but we ALL knew. Gaile Wood now owns a dairy farm in the vicinity of Albany. She has finally found a cow that gives "Chuck" late milk! Ray Greene still loves 'em and leaves 'em, but he's still sharp with the girls!

Mr. Crosley, enjoying the fresh air, wakes up to reveal the information that he has on:

Ronald Russell who is now operating a barber shop. Ronnie specializes in crew cuts! Richard McKnight is now running a sporting goods store. His main project is making bigger basketball backboards. Dick hopes to make it easier for future basketball players to hit the backboards.

Marion James is getting tired of waiting for Roy, she decided to marry her old school flame . . . John! Gary Venton has taken Coach Cervi's place on the Syracuse Nats team as player-coach. Gary has made many improvements over the years!

Rusty Spaulding married a little Jewish girl . . . Louisa Manashewitz. None of his classmates have seen this little doll, because Rusty keeps her bottled up at home!

Last but not least, John Padget has really proven himself in the U. S. as: Mayor of Preble, District Superintendent of Schools, Congressional Representative and Senator of New York State, Secretary of Agriculture, Ambassador to the Belgian Congo, the United States, and then finally John achieved his goal . . . President of . . . Tully P.T.A.

BAND

The Tully Band opened the school year, with their new director, Mr. McKeon, by playing for the football pep assemblies. Also the organization has played for the regular school assemblies.

Our first trip was to the Marine Band Concert which was held in Syracuse at the War Memorial. This concert was attended by the entire band and many of the younger instrumentalists.

In November the NYSSMA All-State Music Festival was scheduled to be held at Elmira. Marilyn Brown, Louise Comstock, Mary Lou Murphy, Trilby Aldrich, and David Hoefer were the instrumentalists chosen to represent Tully. However, the school was closed because of illness and the students were not able to participate.

Christmas time brought a combination of the vocal department and band in the presentation of the annual program.

Shortly after the start of the new semester a number of new members joined the band substantially increasing the numbers and musicality of the organization.

March 5 and 6 brought the Onondaga Music Festival at Fayetteville. Representing Tully were David Hoefer, Marilyn Brown, Mary Lou Murphy, and Peggy Murphy.

At this writing the band is working towards the NYSSMA contest, the Onondaga Festival of bands and the traditional Spring Concert.

The band has had a successful year both musically and socially.

CHORUS

The Tully Central School chorus this year numbered ninety-six members. To sound as professional as possible, enjoy many types of music, and prepare for participation in college, community and church singing groups were the aims of this vocal group.

Techniques for improving tone and blend were employed at rehearsals of the group as a whole and in sectionals. The chorus, which contributes to the school, community and county, sang at the annual Christmas program, special assemblies, evening activities, spring concert, county festival, and New York State contest.

From the membership of the group at large, seventy-four singers were chosen to form the Varsity Chorus. These people were selected on the basis of musical experience, scholarship, responsibility, and attitude.

Members of the chorus who were chosen to go to All-State were: Alice Randall, Jeanette Spencer, June Zufelt, Marian James, Walter Davis, Edward Hillenbrand, Robert Carlton, Jack Rothery, Gary Venton. These people plus John Padget, Stanley Krom, Richard Mickelson sang with the all-county chorus.

In addition to the above activities, several tenors and basses were chosen to sing in the "Messiah" and with the F.F.A. county chorus.

The Pen and Ink Club is the honorary literary society of Tully Central School. In order to be selected for this honor, the candidate must have an average of 85 percent in English. The highlight of our social life was the initiation supper in the school cafeteria on October 29. The following people were initiated: Janet Glasgow, Marilyn Brown, Peggy Murphy, Caroline Fellows, Linda White, Lynn Usher, Trilby Aldrich, Mary dee Richards, and Alice Randall. The main function of this organization is to furnish the local newspaper with the school news. The news that goes under "High Times" is entirely gathered and written by the Pen and Ink members.

The Student Council was organized at the beginning of the year under the advisorship of Mr. Pearse. Because of the usefulness of this organization it is able to help the school in many ways. Some of the services rendered by this club include: the marshal system, student bus organization for basketball game trips, contributions to worthy organizations, and an assembly. Two new services have been inaugurated this year. These are: bus service for out of town football games, and a study hall, which is held during the evenings of Regents weeks.

The purpose of the Student Council is to serve our school in the best way possible and to make it a better place in which to work.

The season marked the beginning of eight man football replacing the six man game. Graduation took an unusual number of players, however, more freshman candidates tried out for the team than ever before.

Walt Davis, Dick McKnight, Dave Spaulding, and Jack Rothery made up the first string line, while Ray Greene, Stan Krom, and Dick Mickelson comprised the backfield. Because of his running and pass catching ability, Krom did most of the scoring. A number of boys stood out on defense, such as Dave Spaulding, Stan Krom and Dick Mickelson. The iron-men on our squad were Jack Rothery and Robert Carlton. Some outstanding freshman players were Bob Ramsey, Don Leonard, Louis Currie and Franklin Corl.

Our won-lost record was not an enviable one, but the team showed good spirit throughout. Their fight and desire to win won the praise of all who knew them and we are proud of them just the same.

The 1953-54 Junior Varsity basketball record is a fairly impressive one. Although we didn't win many games we did gain victories over Fabius twice and Lafayette once. The team was mostly made up of freshmen and sophomores. Under the able leadership of Coach Nettleton the J.V.'s showed steady improvement as the year progressed.
